

I'm writing in regards to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is exactly the type of biased, conservative political action that comes from having multiple media outlets owned by one large company.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest - not their narrow political interests. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. We need an informed public in this democracy, not a duped one. Thank you.
